

Curatorial Education Programme

27 - 29 February 2012

at the Jewish Museum Frankfurt

Preliminary Programme

Monday, 27 February

- 9:00 Registration at the Jewish Museum Frankfurt Untermainkai 14-15
- 9:15 Welcome by Prof. Dr. Raphael Gross, director of the museum
- 9:30 - 11:00 General introduction to the Jewish Museum Frankfurt with guided tour by Johannes Wachten
- 11:00 – 11:15 Coffee break
- 11:15 - 12:45 “Stories and history of objects “: the new permanent exhibition and new forms of presentation with reflection on older ways how to interpret objects, by Fritz Backhaus, Wolfgang Treue and Erik Riedel
- 12:45 – 14:00 Lunch break

14:00 – 17:00 Identifying and interpreting silver objects from the Judaica collection of the Jewish Museum Frankfurt, workshop by Eva Atlan

Tuesday, 28 February

9:00 – 12:30 Identifying and interpreting textile objects from the Judaica collection of the Jewish Museum Frankfurt and from Aschaffenburg, workshop by Felicitas Heimann-Jelinek and Annette Weber

12:30 - 13:30 Lunch break

13:30 - 17:00 Identifying and interpreting channukah lamps from the Judaica collection of the Jewish Museum Frankfurt, workshop by Felicitas Heimann-Jelinek and Annette Weber

Wednesday, 29 February

9:00-12:00 Identifying inscriptions on objects from the Judaica collection of the Jewish Museum Frankfurt and on gravestones with regard to the local language specifics, workshop by Johannes Wachten and Michael Lenarz

12:00 – 12:45 Feedback and Evaluation

12:45 - 13:30 Lunch break

13:30 Field trip to Mainz: Exploring the collection of the Jewish community and the New Synagogue in Mainz with Felicitas Heimann-Jelinek and Annette Weber
Meeting point: Jewish Museum Frankfurt

End of the CEP

Thursday, 1 March

Optional excursion programme: visit to the Museum Judengasse and the exhibition "Devisen Sauberkeit" and other places of interest in Frankfurt: Jewish Cemetery, the bunker in Ostend (former Synagogue Friedberger Anlage), the Westend Synagogue.

Registration

The CEP is open for staff members from AEJM member institutions, preferably those who work with Judaica or Jewish material culture. AEJM Members may send one delegate each.

Please contact AEJM Project Coordinator Eva Koppen: aejm@aejm.org

www.aejm.org

Deadline for registration: February 1, 2012