Museum Education Seminar in Vilnius

This year's Museum Education Seminar (MES) will be held over the course of five summer days in Lithuania's beautiful capital, July 17-21, 2016. The seminar is generously hosted by Vilna Gaon State Jewish Museum. The theme of the 2016 MES is politics of memory, and it will explore how politics of memory have shaped and continue to influence our museums and our educational activities.

Curators on the Road - A-CEP Southern Germany 2016

During one sunny week in April, 15 curators from Jewish museums across Europe took part in the brand new incarnation of the Advanced Curatorial Education Programme. For the first time, the programme was not just based in one city, but it rather took the form of a curatorial expedition, spanning the German regions of Bavaria and Swabia and the Austrian region Vorarlberg. Each night, the group stayed in a new town, and each day was filled with museums and other sites of Jewish interest.
