

Jewish Museum Berlin

Advanced Curatorial Education Programme

14 – 18 September 2014

Jewish Museum Berlin, Germany

Sunday 14 September

9.30 – 10.00 Registration and welcome by Felicitas Heimann-Jelinek, programme director of the A-CEP, and Eva Koppen (AEJM)

10.00 – 11.30 Introduction Session: presentations by participants on their museum's collection and collection policy. Moderator: Felicitas Heimann-Jelinek

11.30 – 12.00 Coffee break

12.00 – 13.30 Presentations: participants present a selected object from their collections. Moderators: Felicitas Heimann-Jelinek and Inka Bertz (JMB)

13.30 – 15.00 Lunch break

15.00 – 16.30 Continuation of the object presentations

16.30 – 17.00 Coffee break

17.00 – 18.30 Continuation of the object presentations

18.30 – 20.00 Individual visit of the JM Berlin

Monday 15 September

9.30 – 10.00 Welcome by Cilly Kugelmann, programme director of the JM Berlin

10.00 – 11.00 Lecture I: Overview of the history of the Jewish Museum Berlin and its role in the German cultural landscape, by Cilly Kugelmann

11.00 – 11.30 Coffee break

11.30 – 13.00 Presentations & discussion: Collection strategies and their specifics for museums. Moderators: Felicitas Heimann-Jelinek and Inka Bertz (JMB)

13.00 – 14.30 Lunch break

14.30 – 16.00 Continuation of the collection strategies

16.00 – 16.30 Departure to the Centrum Judaicum

16.30 – 18.00 Guided tour of the Centrum Judaicum

Tuesday 16 September

9.30 – 11.00 Workshop I: Provenance research, by Felicitas Heimann-Jelinek and Inka Bertz

11.00 – 11.30 Coffee break

11.30 – 13.00 Workshop II: Printed images: techniques, production and use, by Inka Bertz

13.30 – 14.30 Lunch break

14.30 – 16.00 Workshop III: Judaica curiosities and misunderstandings, by Michal Friedlander (JMB) and Anna Augustin (JMB), moderated by Felicitas Heimann-Jelinek

16.00 – 16.30 Coffee break

16.30 – 18.00 Workshop IV: The object and the museum shop: are Judaica for sale museum collectables? With Felicitas Heimann-Jelinek and Michaela Feurstein-Prasser

Wednesday 17 September

- 9.00 – 11.30 Meeting place: entrance of the Jewish Cemetery Schönhauserallee
Workshop V: Inscriptions, symbols and dating - research in small groups, by Felicitas Heimann-Jelinek
- 11.30 – 12.00 Departure to the Jewish Cemetery Weissensee
- 12.00 – 13.00 Tour of the Jewish Cemetery Weissensee, with Felicitas Heimann-Jelinek
- 13.00 – 14.30 Lunch break, on the way back to the JMB
- 14.30 – 16.00 Workshop VI: How to use the LBI Archives in the context of Jewish museums?
By Aubrey Pomerance (JMB)
- 16.00 – 16.30 Coffee break
- 16.30 – 18.00 Workshop VII: Digital databases on the internet and how to use them for cultural-historical research, by Michaela Feuerstein-Prasser, moderated by Felicitas Heimann-Jelinek

Thursday 18 September

- 9.30 – 11.00 Lecture II: Silversmith craftsmanship, by Reinhard Sängler
- 11.00 – 11.30 Coffee break
- 11.30 – 12.45 Lecture III: 20th century industrial production of Judaica in Germany, including film screening of Wie entsteht eine Chanukka-Lampe and discussion, by Michal Friedlander (JMB)
- 12.45 – 13.45 Lunch break – on invitation by the JMB
- 13.45 – 16.00 Workshop VIII: Silver objects: secular and ritual, by Reinhard Sängler and Michal Friedlander (JMB)
- 16.00 – 16.30 Coffee break
- 16.30 – 18.00 Feedback session with Felicitas Heimann-Jelinek and Michaela Feuerstein-Prasser

End of the programme

NB: Costs for lunch are not included in the programme. Participants need to pay for their own lunch. The Jewish Museum Berlin is so kind to offer the participants of the A-CEP a lunch on Thursday.

See below a list of lunch options near the museum.

Good Places to have lunch

1 Turkish Diner

2 Mexican Restaurant

3 "Dai An", Various Asian Dishes, very small, better to take away

4 "Spanische Quelle" Spanish Speciality Shop with small but fine Diner

5 "Diner 67", Pizza, Salads

6 "Restaurant Kofler" at the JMB

7 Supermarket "Kasiers"